..Why Genoa..?

- ✓ Genoa, the capital of Liguria, has been nicknamed «La Superba» (the Superb One) due to its glorious past and impressive landmarks.
- ✓ During the Columbian celebrations in 1992, the Expo Area has been restored to feature the largest Aquarium in Europe and the New Marina.
- ✓ The symbol of Genoa is the Lanterna (the Lighthouse), old and standing lighthouse visible in the distance from the sea, which successfully joins the modern architectural renovations made by the famous Renzo Piano.
- ✓ Genoa's historic centre is one of the widest in Europe. The main square boasts the monumental fountain of Piazza De Ferrari, recently restored.
- ✓ The structure of Genoa's oldest part is articulated in a maze of squares and narrow caruggi (typical Genoese alleys). Among these you may find medieval churches and the magnificent Palazzi dei Rolli, ancient houses of noble families.
- ✓ The cuisine of Liguria and Genoa tastefully reveals the character of the land and the ingenuity of its people. With simple cooking methods, the Genoese have skilfully invented dishes that are authentic, flavourful and extraordinarily enticing.
