Special Offer "Pesto in Genoa Prà"

For stays of at least two consecutive nights, valid on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday Evening, with the exclusion of fair and congress periods

The undisputed symbol of Genoese cuisine, our famous Prà basil which has been growing since 1827 in the "Serre sul Mare", in the firm Bruzzone and Ferrari, is an Italian excellence awaiting discovery and full-fledged recognition. The microclimatic conditions and ancient peasant knowledge give the basil that grows here organoleptic characteristics that are unique worldwide.

The proposed tour will take you inside the "Il Pesto di Prà – Serre sul Mare" company, first discovering the production of basil from sowing to harvesting, then assisting to a demonstration of pesto-making in the mortar according to the traditional Ligurian recipe, and last the experience will culminate in a tasting of typical Genoese food and wine products.

The duration of the tour is approximately two hours. It can be carried out on request on Thursday morning or afternoon, Friday morning or afternoon, or Saturday morning for a minimum of 4 people. In the case of smaller numbers, a supplement of 50 euros is required for each person missing to arrive at the minimum number.

Hotel Bristol Palace, in the heart of Genoa, is the iconic 5-star hotel famous for the grand staircase that inspired Alfred Hitchcock. Located in a superb Art Nouveau building and completely renovated in the last few years, the hotel offers luxurious and elegant rooms, a garage with valet parking (upon reservation), and a wonderful food and wine offer at the Giotto Restaurant which boasts a lovely outdoor terrace.
